

NEW ZEALAND
CURRICULUM DESIGN INSTITUTE

Edu Counter™

Certificate in New Zealand Studies
(Level 3) (40 Credits)

Certificate in New Zealand Studies (Level 3) (40 Credits)

Course Aim:

This course aims to extend learners understandings through practical learning experiences in the English language, history, culture, life styles, business, study skills and sport and recreational activities enjoyed by in the past and in contemporary New Zealand. Learning especially focuses on developing the knowledge and skills to start a business in New Zealand or to do business with New Zealanders. The learner groups targeted for entry to this course are new migrants or refugees, those considering study in New Zealand, and those wishing to learn about or to do business with New Zealand.

Outcome:

Graduates of this course will have gained understandings of the English language, or learner selected studies, history, culture, life styles, work lives, study skills and out of work activities enjoyed by in the past and in contemporary New Zealand to support business activities. Graduates will develop the knowledge and skills to start a business in New Zealand or with New Zealanders.

Entry Criteria:

Entry to this course is open however International applicants to this course must be 18 years of age or older. There is no English language requirement for International applicants to this course. Applicants may be interviewed and their suitability for the course evaluated.

Papers in Course:

English Language in New Zealand, History and Culture in New Zealand, Living in New Zealand, Work and Business in New Zealand, Sport and Recreation in New Zealand and Special Studies

This course is ideal for:

refugees, migrants, international students, business migrants and cultural tourists to New Zealand who would like to learn about the country and culture in a highly enjoyable way so they can live independently and do business in or with New Zealanders in New Zealand.

Course designed and owned by

NEW ZEALAND
CURRICULUM DESIGN INSTITUTE

Email: houseofmontrose@gmail.com for full Graduate Profiles and information about where you can enrol in this course.